Reference Letter

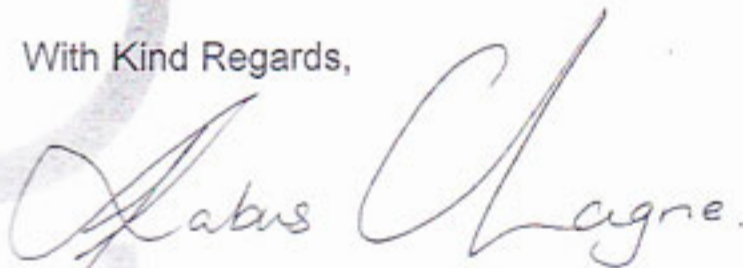

To Whom It May Concern,

L'Oreal South Africa prides itself with establishing business relationships with market leaders within different industries in order to achieve the best goods and services within the various local or international markets. We also believe in best business practices whereby we provide a fair opportunity to tender under our procurement policy.

In saying so it is with great pleasure that we provide a letter of reference for Amazing transport and Warehousing. Amazing transport and Warehousing provided L'Oreal South Africa with a spectacular service which resulted in ensuring that they met our very tight deadline. There was never a moment where any matter was too big or too small for them to assist us on. And it should truly be mentioned that their entire team is extremely hardworking and dedicated to anything they take on which is truly priceless.

In conclusion due to L'Oreal South Africa experience we will always recommend Amazing transport and Warehousing to all prospective clients that they may be tendering to as well as to our own clientele'. I have listed my details below as I was the L'Oreal representative for this successful project. I will always be available to provide a telephonic reference for Amazing transport and Warehousing.

With Kind Regards,
